O'CONNORS
CASE

Hello All,

The Rutherglen Agricultural Society committee have met again this morning and following much discussion have decided to POSTPONE this weekend's Annual Show, due to the current weather situation and the state of the showgrounds as we do not wish to adversely affect the communal areas of the showgrounds which are enjoyed by many.

As such rather than cancel the show we have decided to POSTPONE it to Sunday November 13th, which we hope will still work in with many and be a much more favourable day - we are very keen to see the Show continue on.

With regard to any entries that have already been submitted we are happy to carry them forward.

Any further information or queries please contact us via email or phone.

Regards
Kaylene Lumby
On behalf of
Rutherglen Agricultural Society
