All Saints Day

This week, (November 1st) we celebrated All Saints Day, a celebration honoring all who have entered Heaven.

All Saints Day is a special day for us to remember and honor the saints who have lived exemplary lives of faith and devotion.

It is a day for us to reflect on their virtues, seek their intercession, and be inspired by their examples.

All Saints Day is not just a day to remember the saints but also a day to celebrate the potential for holiness within each one of us. As we honor the saints on this special day, let us be inspired by their examples and make a commitment to cultivating virtues in our own lives.
